

RJMCKennon AWARD

Robert J. McKennon Award
c/o Davis Memorial Foundation
465 Fairchild Drive, Suite #210
Mountain View, CA 94043

Robert J. McKennon Award Nomination Form

The Robert J. McKennon Award will be given to a worthy employee working for a contractor member of the WSRCA. The objective is to aide in the educational development of a foreman, superintendent or field worker who shows dedication and determination to succeed and improve both their company and their own skill set education. The Awardee will receive 3-day accommodations, sponsored attendance fees to the Western Roofing Expo 2010, attendance to corresponding meals, receptions, lectures, demos and seminars. It shall include all transportation (airfare, rental car, personal car) not to exceed $500 for the recipient. It shall include 4 days and 3 nights in a single/double room at the headquarters hotel.

Award Eligibility:

- (All Candidates must have the following eligibility requirements)
- *Must be nominated by a WSRCA roofing contractor member
- *Must show commitment to the industry and desire to improve their experience and professional roofing skills
- *Must have at least 5 years in the roofing industry
- *Open to a foreman, superintendent or a field worker in the nominating contractors' company
- *More than one nominee from each company is eligible

Entry Requirements:

- *An official application form must be submitted for each candidate.
- *The nominating contractor must be a Western States RCA member in good standing with the Association.
- *A current picture of the nominee would be appreciated for identification confirmation and publicity purposes.
- *Fill out this application and email it to Arlene Lawson (arlene@wsrca.com) or it can also be mailed to the Foundation address above. You can also fax a copy of the application to (650) 938-5407.

Name of Nominee:
Nominee Home Address:
City, State, Zip:
Home/Cell Telephone:

Nominated By: (WSRCA Contractor Member)
Name/Company:
Email/Phone Number/Fax Number:

Why should this person receive the RJMCKennon Award?

